Sir,

We beg to submit a report of the administration of the Devaraj Bahadur Charity Fund from 1st April 1895 to 30th June 1896, and a Statement of accounts

The balance on hand on 31st March 1895 was ~~Rs~~ 3 787-12-10, out of which ~~Rs~~ 1287-12-10 were set apart with the permission of Government for continuing the scholarships, grants etc, which were then being given, to the end of December 1895 The amount actually spent under this head head was ~~Rs~~ 1091-10-0 The balance together with the other savings, was utilized as per Government Order № 192 of 26th April 1895 in the proportion of 3 to 1, for Widows' Education Rs 237-0-11 and ~~Rs~~ 79-0-4 for the encouragement of Kanarese and Sanskrit Literature, as shown in Statement № I

Two special classes were opened, for widows, in the Maharani Girls' School, on 9th May 1895, with seven students in each of them Besides these fourteen scholars, there were 4 others who were more advanced in their studies and were consequently put in the Lower Secondary class in the school Of these four, three appeared for the Lower Secondary Examination held in December 1895, and all passed, one of them taking a place in the First Class Of these 14 pupils in the two classes, two who were more advanced than the others were promoted to the Lower Secondary class at the beginning of

of this year, and the remaining 12 have been formed into one class A full report of the progress made by these pupils in their studies, will appear in the Maharani Girls' School Report for 1895-96 Of these 18 scholars, those pupils who had come from out-stations were given a house-allowance of ~~Rs~~ 2 per month, in accordance with rule 6 of Notification dated 1st May 1895

The total amount that was available for Widows' education, as shown in Statement No. II was ~~Rs~~ 3987-0-11, out of which the amount actually spent was ~~Rs~~ 2155-10-0 Every six months as soon as the half yearly interest of ~~Rs~~ 1250 on the permanent fund, was drawn from Government, three-fourths of it viz ~~Rs~~ 937-8-0 was deposited in the Government Savings' Bank in the name of the Honorary Secretary, Mahar Rani Girls' School as per Rule 10 of Notification dated 1st May 1895

During the period under report authors of 28 original works and translations were encouraged with money money grants The total amount available for this purpose was Rs 1329-0-4, out of which Rs 1149-13-6 were actually spent

In conclusion we are happy to note that the two objects of the charity, have been successfully carried out during the period under report, in as much as 3 of the widow pupils succeeded in passing the Lower Secondary Examination and so many as fifteen authors were encouraged to write original works or bring out translations
